

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, And the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. And also with you.

Lord, have mercy
 Christ have mercy
 Lord, have mercy

Let us pray.

Almighty God,
to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.

Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Exodus 33:12-23.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

At that, the Pharisees left. They determined to trap this Jesus with His own words—hang Him by His own rope, you might say. They sent a batch of students to Him, along with a group that was loyal to Herod.

Students: Teacher, we know You are a man of integrity and You tell the truth about the way of God. We know You don't cotton to public opinion. And that is why we trust You and want You to settle something for us: should we, God's chosen people, pay taxes to Caesar or not?

Jesus knew these men were out to trap Him.

Jesus: You hypocrites! Why do you show up here with such a transparent trick? Bring Me a coin you would use to pay tax.

Someone handed Him a denarius. Jesus fingered the coin.

Jesus: Of whom is this a portrait, and who owns this inscription?

Students: Caesar.

Jesus: Well then, render to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's.

And those who had come hoping to trick Jesus were confounded and amazed. And they left Him and went away.

Glimmers of God

Exodus 33:12-23, Matthew 22:15-22

Let us confess our faith, as we say, I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Dear friends in Christ,
God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy. He welcomes sinners and invites them to His table. Let us therefore confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Almighty God have mercy upon us,
pardon and deliver us from all our sins, confirm and strengthen us in all goodness, and keep us in eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow
Praise Him all creatures here below
Praise Him above ye heavenly host Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks and praise, almighty
God, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Redeemer. He is your living Word, through whom you have created all things.

By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature. He lived and died as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering, to bring release to those who place their hope in you; and so he won for you a holy people.

He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows, and to give up his life on the cross, that he might shatter the chains of evil and death, and banish the darkness of sin and despair. By his resurrection he brings us into the light of your presence.

Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and gracious God, accept our praise, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread and gave you thanks, saying, "Take, and eat: this is my body which is broken for you."

In the same way he took the cup, saying, "This is my blood which is shed for you. When you do this, you do it in memory of me."

Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we offer you this bread and this cup, giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church. Gather into one all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory through your Servant, Jesus Christ.

All glory and honour are yours, Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and forever.

Amen.

And now, as our Saviour has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

We break this bread, to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many,
We are one body
For we all share in one bread.

Glimmers of God

Communion

If you are wounded and if you're alone, If you are angry, if your heart's as cold as stone
If you have fallen and if you are weak,
Then come find the worth of God
That only the suffering seek

Come lift up your sorrows, And offer your pain
Come make a sacrifice of all your shame
There in your wilderness, He's waiting for you
To worship Him with your wounds, For He's wounded too

He has not stuttered and He has not lied
When He says come unto Me, you're not disqualified
When you're heavy laden you may want to depart
But those who know sorrow, they're closest to His heart

Come lift up your sorrows, And offer your pain
Come make a sacrifice of all your shame
There in your wilderness, He's waiting for you
To worship Him with your wounds, For He's wounded too

Glory to God,
 whose power, working in us,
 can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
 Glory to God from generation to generation
 in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.
